

Mont St Jean, Anglo-Dutch, Wellington (4)

British command by division (in bold), but note that the subelements that start with an asterisk begin with subgoals.

Some Cavalry Brigades are attached to infantry divisions. Others are independent Brigades in the reserve. Cavalry Commanders add two to their dice when rolling for local initiative, but suffer loose cannon on 2 or 3.

All Corps commanders can attempt royal initiative to issue orders to units in their corps. The Corps are :

I Corps, Prince William of Orange (0) loose cannon on 2 or 3 (he was an idiot).

II Corps, Hill (3)

Cavalry Corps, Uxbridge (2) +2 for initiative, but 2 or 3 for loose cannon.

.Brunswickers: Olfermans (1)(or the Duke Of Brunswick (2) if he is still alive)
